

Martin Luther School, Joplin Teacher

Martin Luther School is looking to call a Kindergarten teacher to serve as part of a team ministry. The teacher will be responsible for all grade-level curriculum, including religion. The teacher is expected to work with our team of teachers and ministerial staff at Martin Luther School to ensure a well-rounded, faith-based education for our Kindergarten students.

The new teacher will serve in August through May with a starting pay of $28,500. (The is a base salary and will be adjusted with education and experience.) The teacher is expected to be an example of faith to the congregation and students in their church attendance, devotional life, and daily interactions.
