Minutes of the Twenty–Second Convention of The Missouri District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod
June 22–24, 2025
Wyndham Convention Center
Columbia, Missouri

Theme: Bold Hope in Christ

The District Convention commenced on Sunday, June 22 with a Divine Service hosted by St. Paul Lutheran Church in Concordia, Mo. A summary of the service was included in Sunday's Today's Business and is included here:

Rev. Peter Lange, first vice president of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) served as preacher, building on the Convention's theme: Bold Hope in Christ.

Lange reminded delegates that our hope is not vague or uncertain—it is bold, confident, and grounded in the unshakable promises of Christ. Quoting 2 Cor. 3:12 (ESV), Lange said, "Since we have such a hope, we are very bold." In the face of hardship, cultural change, or personal suffering, the Church does not retreat. Instead, with boldness, we confess Christ, trust His Word, and proclaim the Gospel to the world. This hope, Lange emphasized, is not based on human strength but rooted in Christ's death and resurrection, and sustained by His Spirit for every moment and every mission.

The service was hosted by St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Concordia, Mo. Assisting in the service were Rev. Randy Asbury, Rev. Benjamin T. Ball, President Rev. Dr. R. Lee Hagan, Rev. Andrew Lehenbauer, Rev. William Marler, Rev. Craig Otto, Rev. Michael Pottschmidt, and Rev. Brian Thieme. Musical leadership featured the Concordia Music Conservatory Kinderchor and the Concordia Music Conservatory, organist Katherine Drefs, and brass ensemble: Rachel Martens, Rev. Jeremy Freeman, Rev. Greg Truwe, Peter Krege, and Kaleb Virus.

The District Convention offering was also described in Sunday's Today's Business. This summary is included here:

The designation for the District Convention offering is the scholarship endowment for university and seminary students preparing for professional church work vocations—commonly known throughout the state as Tomorrow's Teachers & Preachers.

- While the endowment was created more than 40 years ago, an intentional effort through the Tomorrow's Teachers & Preachers campaign the last four years has grown the size of the investment by 10%, allowing for the healthy continuation of these scholarships.
- It is our goal to increase the endowment by an additional 10% over the upcoming triennium, providing more funds to more students.

Yesterday's offering at the opening worship service totaled $15,077.52. Thank you to all who gave. May these gifts be used for God's glory! The apostle Paul encouraged those reading his letters that despite everything going on around them and the work that was before them, they could move with confidence knowing that God would sustain them. "Bold Hope in Christ" is an excellent reminder for us all in this present day as we serve congregations and schools throughout the state. The Missouri District is blessed to do this work in God's kingdom with you all.

Minutes of Session One – Monday, June 23, 8 a.m.

The opening devotion was led by the Rev. Michael Pottschmidt and Rev. Andrew Lehenbauer from St. Paul Lutheran Church, Concordia, Missouri. Pottschmidt preached on the “Our Living Hope” drawn from 1 Peter 1:3-9. The following summary is from Monday’s Today’s Business:

The devotion reflected on a moment familiar to many—standing in a cemetery, committing a loved one to the ground. In that sacred space, all false hopes are stripped away, and the truth of the Gospel stands firm.

The devotion reminded us that many of the hopes we cling to—health, peace, stability—are not bad in themselves, but they are fragile. They can fade, fail, or disappear. These are dying hopes. But through Christ’s resurrection, we are given something infinitely greater: a living hope. A hope that cannot die, because it is rooted in Easter.

This “living hope” is more than comfort—it is strength for today. It equips us to face trials with courage, to serve our neighbor with joy, and to walk through grief with confidence. As Pottschmidt proclaimed, “We live and we die in a living hope that beats with the unending heartbeat of our resurrected Savior.” Thanks be to God that our hope is not fleeting—it is eternal, and it lives in us because Jesus lives for us.

Staff members and those on the dais were introduced to the assembly including Secretary of Synod Rev. Dr. John Sias, who is serving as our parliamentarian, Missouri District Secretary Rev. Samuel Powell, Stage Manager Rev. Jason Kohm, and Sarah Irwin, who was stationed in the District Convention Office.

President Hagan called the District Convention to order at 8:34 a.m. in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Secretary Powell provided the first registration report as follows:

Third Vice President Rev. Randy Asburry took over as chair of the District Convention and invited President Hagan to give his acceptance speech. His acceptance speech, as contained in Monday's Today's Business, is included here:

In the afternoon of June 25, 1530, Chancellor of Saxony Christian Beyer stood before Emperor Charles V and read the German version of the Augsburg Confession. Dr. Beyer's loud voice carried so that the crowd gathered outside the hall in the courtyard were able to hear its presentation, which lasted approximately two hours. Seven German princes and two city councils had subscribed to the confession. At the risk of their lives and their earthly kingdoms, they boldly confessed their hope in Christ. Beyer read these words from Article IV of the Augsburg Confession, "We receive forgiveness of sin and become righteous before God out of grace for Christ's sake when we believe that Christ has suffered for us and that for his sake our sin is forgiven and righteousness and eternal life are given to us." This was their bold confession, and it remains what we believe, teach and confess still today!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, there is much fear and apathy among our congregations today. Church leaders may wonder if the best days are behind us. We look back upon the past with longing and look to the future with uncertainty. And at times, we are hesitant even in the present because of the feeling that we're too small or too old or we've tried it all before. But Jesus Christ has indeed risen from the dead. The living Christ gives hope to those who were paralyzed by fears and doubts. Christ is not in the tomb! He sits at the Father's right hand in glory. Last night we sang, "This is the feast of victory for our God," because Christ has conquered sin and death! This is the hope that we proclaim. This is what we believe, teach and confess. This is the hope of which we sing. Because Christ has risen we have such hope and because we have such hope, we are very bold! My prayer for our congregations is that the next three years would be marked by boldness in proclaiming the Risen

Christ, that we have boldness to proclaim the Gospel. It may be proclaimed in different places and amongst different people, but it is the same Gospel of Christ's victory and the hope that it brings.

In Springfield and Washington circuits, the boldness of our congregations means starting new Lutheran high schools. That's bold. In some congregations, boldness means reaching out through ministries that support expectant mothers and children in need. In other congregations, they are boldly serving the underserved in their community by providing clothing, food and even shelter. You've certainly seen such things after the recent tornado in St. Louis. Their boldness may take on different forms, but it always provides opportunities to boldly confess Jesus Christ! That's why we are here, and it's why we serve.

The four critical targets that the District just adopted, that our District Board of Directors have wrestled with focus on key things for our future:

1. Church Worker Recruitment and Retention. We want to continue this emphasis, because of the great need for bold servants in our congregations and schools.
2. Discipleship in the Home. Our goal is to continue to assist congregations in equipping the homes to be places where Christ is at the center of the home and the Gospel is boldly taught there.
3. Mission Field: Missouri. This is the recognition that we have a mission field of over three million souls who are unchurched right here in our own midst. As our mission statement says, "The Missouri District exists to serve and encourage congregations to fulfill the Great Commission and promote the unity of the true faith."
4. Leadership Development. The District will provide training to assist congregations in developing leaders for our congregations and schools, amongst rostered church workers and laypeople.

The common goal thread among the four targets is bold hope in Christ!

The resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead changes everything and gives our lives hope and purpose. Pastors all have their favorite theologians that they like to read. The last few years I've really gone back again and again to Swedish Lutheran Bishop, Bo Giertz. His writings are just as timely today as they were when he became Bishop in Sweden nearly seventy years ago. A newly translated work was called A Shepherd's Letter. It's encouragement for the church to be bold, to be bold as we hope in Christ. In it Bishop Giertz writes, "The church's whole existence depends on a miracle: that he who was dead has risen again and is now with them all their days. The church itself is a participation in this miracle. She would not exist if Christ's resurrection power was not at work in her ... Everything that the Resurrected One does and works, all that he draws into his sphere of life, all that he justifies and sanctifies, all that he uses in some way as a means of grace, it is permeated by the hidden power of the resurrection" (p. 9-10). "Everything depends on this: that Christ is risen, that God's Son was delivered for our trespasses and raised for our justification' (Rom 4:25)." (p. 17)

Dear friends in Christ, Our Lord has indeed risen from the dead. May this hope make us bold confessors of the faith as we hold to the truth of God's Word. May we be bold witnesses who tell others about the hope that is within us. And may we be bold servants of Christ as we proclaim the Gospel boldly to all whom we serve. The resurrection of Jesus gives hope to every believer and that means that every congregation can be bold on account of the hope that we have in Christ Jesus!

June 24, 2025, in the afternoon, hundreds of God's people will return home from another convention, returning to their callings at home and at work and in the church. These are the places where God has called you to serve Him and to demonstrate the bold hope that we have in Christ. For less than forty-eight hours, we will have gathered here to be reminded of our Savior's resurrection and to know and to live out what that hope means in each and every one of our congregations! My prayer is that our congregations could be described as all having bold hope in Christ. He is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia! May God grant it for Jesus' sake. Amen.

President Hagan took this opportunity to thank outgoing board members and members of the praesidium.

A video regarding the SHINE! servant event was shared with the District Convention. Director of Mission Advancement Leah Sieveking shared information about MOScholars.

Another video, this one a video from the Synod's two seminaries, was shared with the District Convention.

Directions were given to the assembly for lunch and the District Convention went into recess at noon. The District Convention reconvened at 1:06 p.m. with Vice President Thieme serving as chair.

Missouri District LWML President Marian Hoehner was invited to bring greetings from the women of the LWML.

The chair then welcomed David Fiedler to the stage to bring greetings from and share about the work of the LCMS Foundation. Following Fiedler was President and Chair of MinistryFOCUS Rev. Ken Krueger, who brought greetings on behalf of that organization.

Vice President Thieme welcomed the District Convention Essayist Rev. Dr. Kevin Golden, associate professor at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis to present his essay titled, "Bold Hope in Christ", drawn from 2 Cor. 3:12. A summary of his essay, as presented in Monday's Today's Business, is included here:

A familiar face within the District, Golden reflected on his 23 years of ministry—all served within the Missouri District—and spoke to delegates about the deep theological roots and practical implications of living with Christian hope in a fallen world.

Beginning with an illustration from The Shawshank Redemption, Golden explored the human longing for hope—how it can uplift, and when misdirected, how it can unravel. He reminded the assembly that Christian hope is distinct: it is grounded not in wishful thinking or uncertain dreams, but in the unshakable promises of Christ. “Hope is a good thing,” he noted, “maybe the best of things,” especially when that hope is anchored in the person and work of Jesus.

Throughout the essay, Golden emphasized that hope cannot rest on itself—just as faith cannot be in faith alone. Rather, both must be rooted in Christ. “If your hope is in your hope, then your hope is uncertain and soon to vanish,” he warned. But when grounded in God’s promises, hope is specific, secure, and bold.

Golden offered a vivid cultural comparison between Corinth in Paul’s day and our contemporary world, noting the pressures of wealth, sexual decadence, and athletic idolatry that shaped—and continue to shape—people’s priorities. “How do you compete with that?” he asked, referencing the overwhelming cultural tides. His answer was clear: “You don’t have to. In Christ, we behold something far more glorious.”

Drawing deeply from the context of 2 Corinthians and the events at Mount Sinai (Exodus 34), Golden led delegates through a rich biblical narrative—from Moses’ veiled face to the glory of the Lord dwelling in the tabernacle, to its ultimate fulfillment in Christ. The connection culminated in a powerful reminder: In Christ, the veil is lifted. We behold His glory, and we are being transformed—now—into His image.

Golden encouraged delegates to look around at their congregations and recognize the extraordinary in the ordinary: “You may not feel all that glorious, but your feelings do not determine reality. Christ has declared that His glory is transforming you.”

As Paul called the Corinthians to live boldly because of their hope, so too are we. “With that kind of hope,” Golden concluded, “how can you not act with much boldness?”

Following Dr. Golden’s essay, President Hagan resumed chairing the District Convention and welcomed Chair of the Nominating Committee Rev. Rodriguez, back to the stage. It was noted that Rev. David Roth removed his name from consideration from the ordained position on the Board of Directors.

Rodriguez presented the slate for the ordained position on the Board of Directors.

The chair recognized Rev. Craig Meissner who brought forward an overture related to seminary education, “To Affirm the Pastoral Formation Done By Our LCMS Seminaries.” There was a second. With the consent of the body, this overture was referred to Floor Committee Four to be considered and then be printed in the next issue of Today’s Business.

Two videos were shared with the District Convention. The first was regarding the blessing of Lutheran schools and the second was on shared ministry.

Rev. Craig Otto assumed the chair of the District Convention. He welcomed Rev. Peter Lange, first vice president of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to the stage to give his report. He brought greetings on behalf of President Harrison and shared the framework for President Harrison’s theological approach to District Convention visits for this triennium, Book of Concord Lutherans. Rev. Lange shared a video from President Harrison to begin his formal report. After the video, Rev. Lange continued his report, which concluded with a video that included information about the 2026 Synod Convention in Phoenix.

Rev. Lange welcomed Rev. Ben Ball, Synod second vice president to the stage for a time of Q&A.

After the Q&A, President Hagan resumed the chair and a video on family ministry was shared with the District Convention.

The chair welcomed Jonathan Schultz, president and CEO of Concordia Publishing House who brought greetings on behalf of the institution. Kevin Herwick, vice president and Chief Operating Officer of Concordia Plan Services then brought greetings on behalf of that institution. Finally, Rev. Todd Biermann, executive director of the Concordia Center for the Family who brought greetings on behalf of that institution.

President Hagan announced that the Springfield Circuit would be caucusing after the conclusion of the afternoon session to elect a circuit visitor. The ordained advisory delegates would also be caucusing at that time.

The chair welcomed Arnold, chairman of Floor Committee Three – Theology, Church, and Culture to the stage to present the work of his committee.

Resolution 3-01: To Celebrate the 500th Anniversary of the Small Catechism and Encourage Heads of Households to Teach It in the Home was presented. The committee moved adoption. With the consent of the committee, the resolution was adopted. Resolution 3-01 was put before the District Convention.

Resolution 3-02 was adopted as amended.

Resolution 3-03: Resolution 3-03 To Oppose Missouri State Amendment 3 and Defend God's Gift of Life was presented. The committee moved adoption.

It was moved and seconded to amend the resolution. The content of the amendments to the resolution are included here:

WHEREAS, the joy of Christ's birth is also for the child inside his mother's womb (Acts 2:39), as attested by the account of John leaping in Elizabeth's womb (Luke 1:41, 44), and

WHEREAS, the eternal Word becoming flesh in the womb of the Virgin is essential to how sinful man is saved (Gal 4:4-5; 1 Tim 2:5), since, as Gregory of Nazianzus put it, "For that which He has not assumed He has not healed; but that which is united to His Godhead is also saved (Critique of Apollinarianism, par. 5);"

RESOLVED, that the Missouri District of the LCMS in convention memorialize Synod in convention to declare, that the pro-choice and abortion rights ideology is a heresy, which no Christian in good conscience can hold, and be it further

The question was called on debate for the amendment.

With the orders of the day called, Pottschmidt closed the day's session with a prayer and a hymn was sung. The District Convention went into recess until 8:00 a.m. Tuesday morning.

Rev. Randy Asburry served as chair for the beginning of Tuesday's session. The first part of the orders of the day was the triennial memorial service. This service was summarized in Tuesday's edition of Today's Business and is included here:

Missouri District First Vice President Rev. Bill Marler led delegates in the Matins Memorial Service on Tuesday morning. In his sermon, based on Matt. 25:21, Marler reflected on the lives and faithful service of pastors and church workers who have entered eternal rest.

He reminded listeners that while no one is indispensable, each servant is used by God to carry out His mission. "To live is Christ," Marler said, means that every season of life—even one marked by weakness or weariness still has purpose in Christ. With humility, faithfulness, and courage, we serve until we are called home.

As we remember those who have gone before us, we are strengthened to take up our call anew, encouraged by the promise of hearing one day: "Well done, good and faithful servant. Come and share your Master's happiness." In the words of Marler, "Let us leave here with a renewed will to march on, even through the mud and mire, just to reach it."

The service also included Rev. Michael Pottschmidt, senior pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Concordia, who read the names of church workers who entered eternal rest between June 1, 2022, and May 31, 2025. As each name was read, a bell was rung in memoriam.

Vice President Thieme assumed the role of District Convention chair and welcomed back Golden to deliver part two of his essay. A summary of the essay, included in Tuesday's Today's Business, is included here:

Rev. Dr. Kevin Golden, essayist for the District Convention, delivered Part II of the convention essay series on Tuesday morning. Continuing the theme "Bold Hope in Christ," drawn from 2 Cor. 3:12, Golden offered a theological meditation on two Old Testament accounts of hope, illustrating the boldness that arises when God's people are held by His promises.

The first account began with the people of Israel entering the Promised Land in the book of Joshua. Golden recounted the Lord's provision—from the Exodus through wilderness wanderings to the conquest of Jericho highlighting the faithfulness of Yahweh in delivering His people. But the narrative turned with the sin of Achan, who took devoted items from Jericho in disobedience to Yahweh's command. As a result, Israel suffered a humiliating defeat at Ai, and Achan was put to death in the Valley of Achor—literally, the "Valley of Trouble." A pile of stones was left as a memorial to the communal consequence of one man's sin.

Yet, Golden emphasized that the story of Achor does not end in judgment. Over six hundred years later, in Hosea 2:15, the Lord promised to transform the Valley of Achor into "a doorway of hope." Despite Israel's ongoing idolatry, Yahweh would restore His unfaithful bride, Israel. This eschatological promise found its fulfillment in Christ, the second Adam, who brings life where once there was death. Golden noted the shocking mercy of the Gospel—that Christ redeems even those who, like Hosea's wife, had become unfaithful. With that confidence, the Church boldly proclaims Christ to all, for no one lies beyond the reach of His grace.

The second account moved forward in redemptive history to the Babylonian exile. After decades of captivity, Judah was freed by the Edict of Cyrus in 539 BC. Yet, upon returning to Jerusalem, the people found only ruins where the temple once stood. Golden invited delegates to relate to that feeling of loss, noting common laments heard today: empty pews, dwindling Sunday school classes, or once-vibrant ministries now quiet.

Still, the prophet Zechariah addressed the returned exiles with a startling proclamation: “Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope” (Zechariah 9:12). Though they had known captivity and desolation, Yahweh bound them not to fear, but to the hope of a coming King. That hope was fulfilled in Jesus Christ, who entered Jerusalem on a donkey to suffer, die, and rise. Golden reminded the assembly that although physical buildings may fall and earthly institutions waver, the reign of Christ continues wherever His means of grace are delivered—Word, Baptism, Supper, and Absolution.

The essay concluded with a personal reflection, as Golden shared photos of the three congregations he has served. Each, he said, bears its own “account of hope,” because each is filled with Christ. He encouraged congregations to look not at what has been lost, but to see their communities through the lens of bold hope. Whether it is engaging preschool families, caring for the elderly, or responding to human need, congregations are to act boldly, for the Church is not a relic of the past but Christ’s living body in the present.

Golden reminded delegates: “You are not surrounded by decline. You are surrounded by hope—because you are held by Christ.” With that certainty, the Church presses on, acting with great boldness in proclaiming and living the hope that is hers in Christ alone.

President Hagan resumed chairing the District Convention and invited Secretary Powell to provide a registration report. Registrations as of 9:15 a.m. were:

President Hagan took this opportunity to recognize members of the Board of Directors and the Praesidium who have finished their terms of service. This includes Vice President Marler and Vice President Thieme and Board Members Rev. Jeremy Schultz and Brian Mitchell.

Also, President Hagan recognized the District Convention host congregation, St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Concordia, the District Convention Committee and staff, the Wyndham staff, Southwest Audio Visual, Padget Communications, especially Convention Parliamentarian Trina Brown, our student assistants, the Altar Guild from Trinity Lutheran Church in Columbia, and all of our ushers and volunteers.

Pottschmidt and Vice President Thieme led the assembly in the closing devotion. Vice President Thieme's message was summarized in Tuesday's Today's Business and is included here:

The Missouri District Convention concluded with a devotion led by Second Vice President Rev. Brian Thieme, centered on Peter's confession in John 6:68–69: "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." Drawing from Scripture and the faithful examples of biblical figures, the devotion reminded delegates that Christ alone is our anchor in times of uncertainty, and His Word alone brings eternal life. With a call to bold confession and continued trust in Jesus, Thieme encouraged delegates to leave strengthened in faith.

As part of the service, the newly reelected President Hagan, along with the circuit visitors, were installed. The District Convention adjourned at 12 p.m. During the devotion, Synod First Vice President Rev. Peter Lange installed President Hagan and President Hagan installed the circuit visitors.

With no objections, the chair adjourned the twenty-second District Convention of the Missouri District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" at noon.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rev. Samuel Powell
Missouri District Secretary

Convention Resolutions

Resolution 1-01

To Encourage a Heightened Awareness and Support of Lutheran Campus Ministries

Whereas, God, in His Word, instructs us to continue growing in our life of faith; and

Whereas, the Missouri District Campus Ministry Network supports, encourages, and equips Missouri District campus ministries to reach, resource, and release young adults as witnesses who share the message of Jesus Christ during and after their college years; and

Whereas, there is often little or nothing on the public campus to support Christian culture, life, and faith; and

Whereas, the public campus culture can often be hostile to the Christian life and faith; and

Whereas, the local campus ministries offer a place of sanctuary, renewal, and belonging in the midst of the challenging life of our college students in the current culture; therefore be it

Resolved, the Missouri District encourages congregations to utilize and to notify the Missouri District Campus Ministry Network when students are enrolled in colleges and universities; and be it further

Resolved, the Missouri District encourages all college students to participate in the annual GO Leadership Retreat; and be it further

Resolved, the Missouri District shares Missouri District Campus Ministry Network information during all District youth events; and be it further

Resolved, the Missouri District encourages congregations near campuses without Campus Ministry Network representation to connect with the Missouri District Campus Ministry Network; and be it further

Resolved, the Missouri District encourages congregations to financially support the Missouri District Campus Ministry Network, local campus ministries, and participants that attend Missouri District Campus Network events including the GO Leadership Retreat; and be it finally

Resolved, the Missouri District encourages congregations to support the Missouri District Campus Ministry Network, local campus ministries, and participants with regular prayer.

Resolution 1-02

To Make Aware and Encourage Efforts in Mission Field Missouri

Whereas, God desires all people come to the knowledge of Jesus and be saved; and

Whereas, 52% of the population of Missouri, over three million people, are currently unchurched and part of the mission field; and

Whereas, these unchurched people are scattered across the state in urban areas, small cities, towns, and rural communities; and

Whereas, God has established “mission outposts” in the churches and schools of the Missouri District; and

Whereas, by the grace of God, many people have been trained and equipped for mission through initiatives such as Plus One, SHINE!, and Every One His Witness; and

Whereas, Missouri, due to our geographic location, diverse population base, and educational opportunities, also has influence on people worldwide; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District encourages every church and school to recognize themselves as a mission among the unchurched in Missouri (to be understood as Mission Field Missouri); and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District encourages every church and school to pray regularly for the unchurched in their local communities; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District encourages congregations to make use of Missouri District resources to better reach out to the unchurched in their community; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District encourages congregations within their communities to partner together in Mission Field Missouri; and be it finally

Resolved, congregations are encouraged to continue participation in District Mission initiatives such as Plus One, SHINE!, and Every One His Witness and future mission endeavors.

Resolution 1-03

To Encourage and Celebrate Multiethnic Ministry

Whereas, it is the 150th anniversary of the LCMS outreach to Chinese immigrants in St. Louis; and

Whereas, Jesus's command is to "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19); and

Whereas, God is bringing people from "the nations" to the United States who are settling in communities throughout Missouri; and

Whereas, these new Americans are a "field ripe for the harvest" of faith and salvation; and

Whereas, multiethnic ministry brings together people from different nations, cultures, and backgrounds to work together while recognizing each ethnicity as wonderfully unique; and

Whereas, God is gathering people from multiple cultures and ethnicities to join together in reaching new generations of people coming to Missouri; and

Whereas, in the preceding triennium, within the Missouri District, God has raised up three pastors, two deaconesses, and a number of lay persons from other nations and ethnicities to serve as leaders in multiethnic ministry; therefore be it

Resolved, the Missouri District encourages congregations to celebrate and give thanks to God for the 150 years of multiethnic outreach and for the multiethnic pastors, deaconesses, and laity that God has raised up in the preceding triennium; and be it further

Resolved, the Missouri District encourages congregations to be aware of, pray for, and be open to opportunities for multiethnic ministry in their local communities; and be it finally

Resolved, as God grants and blesses these efforts, the Missouri District encourages congregations to make use of District and Synodical resources.

Resolution 2-01

To Approve Strategic Plan Critical Targets for 2025-28 Triennium

Whereas, the Missouri District Board of Directors adopted a strategic plan for the 2022-25 triennium with four critical targets:

1. Church Worker Recruitment and Retention
2. Family Discipleship Expansion
3. Community Engagement
4. Shared Ministry; and

Whereas, the strategic plan guided the Board and staff in their respective work during the triennium; and

Whereas, a detailed version of the strategic plan was sent to each congregation of the District to make them aware of the various initiatives; and

Whereas, six town hall meetings were held in the fall of 2024 for the Board and staff to gain input from across the District; and

Whereas, the feedback from more than 300 attendees from nearly 100 congregations was shared with the Board to inform the strategic plan for 2025-28; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District approve these four critical targets:

1. Church Worker Recruitment and Retention – Continuing to address the urgent need for pastors, teachers, and commissioned ministers while supporting the wellbeing and retention of those currently serving
 2. Discipleship in the Home – Expanding on the previous focus on family discipleship to emphasize equipping parents, guardians, and households to nurture faith development within the home
 3. Mission Field: Missouri – From “Community Engagement” to a more intentional and District-wide mission strategy, equipping congregations to see their local communities as mission fields for sharing the Gospel
 4. Leadership Development of laity and church workers – Strengthening lay and clergy leadership training, fostering collaboration among congregations, and equipping future church leaders
- to guide the development of a detailed strategic plan for the 2025-28 triennium.

Resolution 2-02

To Encourage Congregations to Intentionally Recruit Youth and Adults to Consider Church Work Vocations

Whereas, our Lord bids that we pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest fields (Matthew 9:37-38); and

Whereas, each spring there are more requests for placements of pastors and teachers than there are available servants from our seminaries and universities; and

Whereas, the LCMS Set Apart to Serve materials provides tools to assist congregations, schools, and adult mentors to encourage youth and adults to consider church work vocations; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District Convention encourage congregations to annually designate a Sunday as “Tomorrow’s Teachers & Preachers Sunday” to highlight church work vocations, share information about LCMS seminaries and universities, and receive offerings for either the congregation or District’s church work endowment funds; and be it further

Resolved, that congregations and Lutheran high schools collaborate to provide opportunities to visit LCMS universities to learn more about church work vocations and to promote the Missouri District Lutheran College Fair each time it is held; and be it further

Resolved, that each congregation would designate someone to assist with promotion of LCMS Set Apart to Serve materials and to share information about the LCMS seminaries and universities; and be it finally

Resolved, that congregations be encouraged to share the joy of serving the Lord in church work vocations by diligently recruiting youth and adults engaged in God’s Word and Sacraments, acknowledging the challenges but praying that the Holy Spirit guides to consider the joyful calling of church work vocations

Resolution 2-03

To Encourage Church Worker Retention

Amended by Convention

Whereas, one of the objectives of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) is to “Recruit and train pastors, teachers, and other professional church workers and provide opportunity for their continuing growth” (Constitution Article III 3); and

Whereas, another objective of the LCMS is to “Provide evangelical supervision, counsel, and care for pastors, teachers, and other professional church workers of the Synod in the performance of their official duties” (Constitution Article III 8); and

Whereas, the vocation of professional church worker is filled with great opportunities to encourage people in their faith daily; and

Whereas, the number of active rostered church workers has decreased from 14,647 in 2020 to 11,885 in 2023; and

Whereas, congregations have limited resources for providing a sabbatical; and

Whereas, research findings from a 2024 Synod survey of workers and congregational lay leaders indicate that lay leaders recognize and affirm their responsibility in caring for church workers; and

Whereas, that lay leaders desire to be more proactive in the care they provide for support and welfare of their church workers; and

Whereas, lay leaders would appreciate any information, resources, or best practice recommendations to this end; therefore be it

Resolved, lay leaders and church workers be encouraged to collaborate for the mutual building of the body of Christ with its church workers; and be it further

Resolved, that the District President and the District staff provide a sample sabbatical guideline to each congregation’s Board of Elders; and be it further

Resolved, that the Convention commends Lutheran Church Extension Fund for its partnership with MinistryFOCUS to provide grants to professional church workers for educational debt; and be it further

Resolved, that the Convention also commends the ministries of Grace Place Wellness Ministry, DOXOLOGY: The Lutheran Center for Spiritual Care and Counsel, and Shepherd’s Canyon Retreat for their efforts to provide church workers spiritual, emotional, and psychological tools, personal consultation, refreshment in the Word, and advanced education; and be it further

Resolved, that the congregations and the congregational leaders of the Missouri District be encouraged to refer their church workers to the above opportunities; and be it finally

Resolved, to proactively foster a culture of care and appreciation through prayer, recognition, and practical support for those serving in church work.

Resolution *2-04

To Study Shared Ministry Among Small Congregations

Amended by Convention

Whereas, Missouri District currently has a growing number of congregations that are too small and/or lack the resources to call a full-time pastor; and

Whereas, the Missouri District experiences the ongoing challenge to supply Synodically trained, ordained and commissioned workers to serve in their midst; and

Whereas, in the Holy Scriptures we hear how the first disciples responded to the needs of fellow believers during a time of famine in another region, “So the disciples determined, every one according to his ability, to send relief to the brothers living in Judea” (Acts 11:29) ; and

Whereas, God leads us to consider other congregations and their needs by sharing the resources of workers, with these words “Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others...I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon” (Philippians 2: 4, 19) ; and

Whereas, in 2 Corinthians 9:2c-3 we hear how congregations stewarded the support for workers by collaborating in advance to ensure the success of shared resources and by their zeal in the resurrected Lord, saying “...And your zeal has stirred up most of them. But I am sending the brothers so that our boasting about you may not prove empty in this matter, so that you may be ready...” ; and

Whereas, the Synod Handbook provides an orderly way to respond to the needs of congregations struggling to support workers, stating;

“The circuit forum is the group which aids the process of keeping congregations, particularly the lay leaders, commissioned ministers, and pastors, supportive of one another in their common confession and mutually active in developing programs for the good of member congregations, in considering and recommending new work, and in suggesting improvements for services and programming at the national and District levels and is encouraged to meet at least twice a year” (Synod 2023 Handbook Section 5.3.1) ; and

Whereas, “(a) The circuit visitor shall endeavor to provide resources, opportunities, and assistance so God’s people can grow in their faith” (Synod 2023 Handbook Section 5.3.1) ; and

Whereas, “(b) Among the functions which the circuit forum may perform are the following:”
... “(3) To devise and develop programs and services relevant to the needs of circuit congregations, lay leaders, teachers, and pastors” (Synod 2023 Handbook Section 5.3.1); and

Whereas, “The circuit convocation is a larger gathering of members from circuit congregations during a year in which there is no national or District Convention” (Synod 2023 Handbook Section 5.4.1); and

Whereas, “The purpose of a circuit convocation is to provide a setting in which congregational members may know of and celebrate the ministry pursued by each congregation, may review and discuss the work of the circuit forum, may discuss and evaluate mission potential within the circuit, and may receive information on various phases of the work pursued through Districts and the Synod” (Synod 2023 Handbook Section 5.4.1); and

Whereas, “(a) Its emphasis should be on inspiration, education, and motivation, and mission and theological discourse both within and beyond the circuit. The convocation should also be a place for in-depth discussion among all circuit congregation members of the theological and missiological issues before the Synod” (Synod 2023 Handbook Section 5.4.1); and

Whereas, “(b) The circuit visitor shall serve as Chairman of the circuit convocation and other circuit gatherings” (Synod 2023 Handbook Section 5.4.1); and

Whereas, “(c) The circuit visitor and any other officers shall have the primary responsibility of preparing the agenda for the circuit convocation” (Synod 2023 Handbook Section 5.4.1);

Resolved, that circuit visitors initiate the planning and implementation of a circuit forum to consider the needs of their small congregations, and to study and instruct on what Scripture and our confessions teach on the Church, the ministry, and the call, and study shared ministry recommendations for supporting small congregations; and be it finally

Resolved, that circuits meet in convocation in non-Convention years as required by Synod bylaws (5.4.1) to address and recommend support needs for our sister congregations that are small.

Resolution 2-05

To Encourage Christian Discipleship in the Home

Amended by Convention

Whereas, the home is the foundational setting for Christian discipleship;
“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise” (Deuteronomy 6:4-7); and

Whereas, daily devotions, prayer, and hymn singing are vital practices for nurturing faith; and

Whereas, Christian education in the home strengthens family bonds and nurtures faith; and

Whereas, congregations often provide training for parents in leading devotions and resources such as Bibles, Small Catechisms, hymnals, Portals of Prayer, and other devotional materials; and

Whereas, the Missouri District has trained more than a dozen Tell the Next Generation facilitators in collaboration with Concordia Center for the Family to help congregations equip parents in discipleship in the home; therefore be it

Resolved, that parents and other guardians responsible for the care of children are encouraged to read God's Word, pray, and have devotions in the home as part of faith formation utilizing the Bible, Luther's Small Catechism, Lutheran Service Book, hymnals of the Synod, and a family altar; and be it

Resolved, that congregations of the Missouri District provide theologically sound devotional resources for Christian discipleship in the home; and be it finally

Resolved, that congregations in need of assistance in family discipleship be encouraged to utilize a Tell the Next Generation facilitator through the Missouri District office.

Resolution 2-06

To Encourage Fathers to Provide Spiritual Leadership in the Home

Amended by Convention

Whereas, the Holy Scriptures teach "Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord" (Eph. 6:4); and

Whereas, secular society provides competing values to draw fathers away from their Christian vocation of discipleship for their children; and

Whereas, children are more likely to remain faithful to the Christian faith into adulthood when they see their father actively leading in this area; and

Whereas, faith formation has been misunderstood as primarily the responsibility of the church, while the above Scriptures, as well as sociological studies, show that parents are the primary influence on faith formation:

- when the father and mother attend church regularly, 33 percent of their children end up as regular churchgoers;
- when the mother attends regularly but the father is non-practicing, only two percent of their children become regular churchgoers;
- when the father attends regularly but the mother is non-practicing, 44 percent of the children become regular churchgoers (Haug and Warner, "Vol. 2 of Population Studies No. 31", [Strasbourg, 2000]);
- and the church's responsibility lies in equipping the parents; and

Whereas, another study, focused on Sunday School, found similar results on the impact of parents:

- when both parents attend Bible study in addition to the Sunday service, 72 percent of their children attend Sunday school when grown;
- when only the father attends Sunday school, 55 percent of the children attend when grown;
- when only the mother attends Sunday school, 15 percent of the children attend when grown;
- when neither parent attends Sunday school, only six percent of the children attend when grown (Nick Cady, "The Impact on Kids of Dad's Faith and Church Attendance", June 20, 2016, www.nickcady.org); and

Whereas, additionally, the survey found that:

- if a child is the first person in a household to become a Christian, there is a 3.5 percent probability everyone else in the household will follow;
- if the mother is the first to become a Christian, there is a 17 percent probability everyone else in the household will follow;
- when the father is first, there is a 93 percent probability everyone else in the household will follow; therefore be it

Resolved, that fathers are encouraged to take a more active role in the Christian education of their children, providing guidance and leadership in faith formation; and be it finally

Resolved, that congregations of the Missouri District provide theologically sound resources for fathers in the home.

Resolution 3-01

To Celebrate the 500th Anniversary of the Small Catechism and Encourage Heads of Households to Teach It in the Home

Amended by Convention

Whereas, the year 2029 marks the 500th anniversary of the publication of both Martin Luther's Small and Large Catechisms; and

Whereas, in the year 2029 the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod will gather for its 70th Regular Convention and, prior to the Convention, will choose a Convention theme; and

Whereas, Martin Luther's Small Catechism is fundamental for teaching the basic doctrines found in the Scriptures to persons desiring to understand God's truth concerning the Ten Commandments, the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Sacrament of Holy Baptism, Confession, and the Sacrament of the Altar including instructions for individuals (Table of Duties) and various prayers; and

Whereas, the Small Catechism is a magnificent teaching tool for the head of household to use for the devotional life of the family and teaching foundational Biblical truths by using the questions and answers within each chief part, the Table of Duties, basic questions and answers for the family, and daily prayers; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention encourage congregations and various entities within the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to recognize and celebrate the treasure for the sake of the church that is Martin Luther's Small Catechism; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention encourage the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to include in its regular Convention theme for 2029 the celebration of the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther's Small Catechism; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention encourage pastors, congregations, and schools to continue to use the Luther's Small Catechism to teach the Christian faith to their members and those considering membership, and encourage members to use the Catechism at home for family devotions; and be it finally

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention encourage the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod to promote the 500th anniversary of Luther’s Small Catechism by publicizing this important event in the history of the Lutheran Church and to produce materials that will encourage and equip heads of households to teach the Catechism within the home.

Resolution 3-02

To Offer Care and Support for Families Affected by Homosexuality, ~~and~~ Transgenderism, and Sexual Libertinism

Amended by Convention

Whereas, God in His almighty power has made humans in His image, which has subsequently been defaced and damaged through original sin (Genesis 1; Apology 2.17-18; Formula of Concord Solid Declaration 1.10-11); and

Whereas, God made humans male and female (Gen. 1:27, Matt. 19:4), and designed marriage between a man and a woman (Gen. 2:24) for the purposes of companionship and support (Gen. 2:18, 20–23), procreation (Gen. 1:28), and protection from sin (1 Cor. 7:1-9); and

Whereas, God has designed and gifted sexual intimacy and intercourse to occur only within marriage between one husband and one wife (Ex. 20:15; Deut. 5:18; Num. 5:11-31; Matt. 5:27-30); and

Whereas, the world and our own sinful flesh continue to tempt Christians away from God’s design for marriage and sexuality, with errors such as sexual libertinism, homosexuality, and transgenderism; and

Whereas, the families of our congregations and church workers face these temptations and struggle to find resources for instruction, spiritual care, and personal counseling that are faithful to Biblical designs for marriage and sexuality; and

Whereas, Synod’s Created Male and Female Task Force, created by the Office of National Mission in accordance with 2019 Res. 11-03A and continued by Synod in 2023 Res. 1-04A, has begun its work in studying these problems among rostered church workers and in Synod schools, identifying existing and needed resources, and developing programs that might offer care to those struggling with these temptations and their families; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention encourage its member congregations and church workers to pray for those whose families have been affected by homosexuality, ~~and~~ transgenderism, and sexual libertinism and also encourage them to remain steadfast in their commitment to uphold and teach God’s design for marriage and sexuality while navigating difficult familial relationships, and lovingly support them as they bear these burdens; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District continue its efforts to identify Biblically faithful counselors and make that list available for those whose families are affected by homosexuality, ~~and~~ transgenderism, and sexual libertinism; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District thank the Created Male and Female Task Force for its work and study its report in anticipation of the 2026 Synod Convention; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District memorialize the Synod to continue the Created Male and Female Task Force in the next triennium, with a specific encouragement to develop and facilitate conferences, seminars, and retreats to help the families of our congregations and church workers who have loved ones dealing with these temptations; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District memorialize Synod to direct its seminaries, colleges, and other responsible agencies (Districts, RSOs, etc.) to identify Biblically faithful Lutheran counselors who will abide by God's revealed design for marriage and sexuality, and aid in providing theological education and standards to ensure their Biblical faithfulness; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District memorialize Synod to direct its seminaries, colleges, and other responsible agencies (Districts, RSOs, etc.) to identify and support theologically trained pastors, seminarians, and laypeople who may wish to seek further training in counseling in order to provide care to those struggling with these challenges; and be it finally

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention memorialize Synod to encourage the institutions of the Concordia University System to establish or expand counseling programs that provide for both Biblically faithful counseling to students tempted by homosexuality, ~~and~~ transgenderism, ~~and~~ sexual libertinism and the training of Biblical faithful counselors to care for those inside and outside of the church who are tempted or whose lives and families have been affected by homosexuality, ~~and~~ transgenderism, ~~and~~ sexual libertinism.

Resolution 3-05

To Commend Congregations, Lutherans For Life, and other Appropriate RSOs Involved in Sanctity of Life Efforts

Whereas, God calls us not to "hurt or harm our neighbor in his body, but help and support him in every physical need" (Small Catechism, Fifth Commandment); and

Whereas, Lutherans for Life exists "to equip Lutherans and their neighbors to be Gospel-motivated voices For Life"; and

Whereas, many congregations in the District have created life teams or life chapters using materials from Lutherans for Life and, in turn, support their work throughout the Synod; and

Whereas, many other RSOs and congregations have actively promoted the dignity of life from conception to natural death through advocacy, education, service, and outreach; and

Whereas, these RSOs and congregations have provided critical support to individuals and families in need, offering resources, prayer, and compassionate care to those facing difficult decisions regarding life and health; and

Whereas, the Small Catechism teaches and admonishes all people about their duties and responsibilities with respect to the orders established by God of, among others, husband and wife, parents and children; and

Whereas, the Word of God bids the members of the Body of Christ to "do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith" (Gal.6:10); therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention commend Lutherans for Life, Life Teams and Chapters, and other RSOs and congregations for their Gospel-motivated witness to alternatives to abortion, such as adoption, and for their vocal and material support of such alternatives; and be it further

Resolved, that our congregations be encouraged to study the holy orders found in the Small Catechism's Table of Duties, especially regarding the orders of husband and wife, parents and children; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District continue to promote and support the formation of Life Teams and Chapters in congregations throughout the District; and be it further

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention commend and celebrate the efforts of the RSOs and congregations which have made a difference in defending the sanctity of human life through their tireless work, dedication, and advocacy; and be it finally

Resolved, that Missouri District in convention encourage ongoing support and participation in efforts to promote the sanctity of life and stand united in prayer and action for the protection and dignity of every human being from conception to natural death.

Resolution 3-06

To Oppose Missouri State Amendment 3

Amended by Convention

Whereas, The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod in convention has repeatedly condemned abortion on demand and affirmed the right to life for all, including the preborn in the womb (2019 Res. 11-01A, 2010 Res. 6-02A, 2007, Res. 6-06, 1998 Res. 3-14 and 6-02, 1979 3-02A, 1971 Res. 2-39); and

Whereas, the landmark 2022 Supreme Court Decision, Dobbs v. Jackson, overturned the ~~constitutional~~ right to abortion that had been enshrined in 1974 1973's Roe v. Wade and 1992's Planned Parenthood v. Casey, returning the issue of abortion rights to the people and their elected representatives; and

Whereas, 2024 Missouri Constitutional Amendment 3 amended the state constitution to establish a right to abortion up to "fetal viability," limiting restrictions on or prohibition of abortion to the period after "fetal viability"; and

Whereas, congregations and workers of the Missouri District desire to stand against abortion and the harm it inflicts upon families and children within the State of Missouri, trusting the better hope found in God, our Maker and Redeemer; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention publicly declare its opposition to Amendment 3; and be it finally

Resolved, that the Missouri District encourage congregations to peacefully and proactively speak about God's gift of life within their callings and support political action at the federal, state, and local levels to abolish abortion.

Resolution 3-07

To Defend God's Gift of Life

Amended by Convention

Whereas, Scripture clearly teaches that life begins at conception (Job 10:9-11; Ps. 51:5; Ps. 139:13-17; Jer. 1:5; Luke 1:41-44), and that the child in the womb is a living human created by God to be protected from all harm, including murder (Gen. 9:6; Ex. 20:13; Num. 35:33; Acts 7:19; 1 John 3:15); and

Whereas, the joy of Christ's birth is also for the child inside his mother's womb (Acts 2:39), as attested by the account of John leaping in Elizabeth's womb (Luke 1:41, 44), and

Whereas, the eternal Word becoming flesh in the womb of the Virgin is essential to how sinful man is saved (Gal. 4:4-5; 1 Tim. 2:5), since, as Gregory of Nazianzus put it, "For that which He has not assumed He has not healed; but that which is united to His Godhead is also saved (Critique of Apollinarianism, par. 5);" ~~therefore, be it~~ and

~~Whereas, to teach in the church that the personhood is only conferred at birth or afterwards is to reject God's the Son's incarnation in the womb, therefore be it~~

Resolved, that the congregations and workers of the Missouri District be encouraged to pray for and work toward an end to abortion; and be it further

Resolved, that pastors and laity be encouraged to study the forthcoming CTCR update to its 1984 report on abortion, as requested by the 2023 Synod Convention (2023 Res. 11-03); and be it finally

Resolved, that the Missouri District of the LCMS in convention memorialize Synod in convention to declare, that the ~~pro-choice and abortion rights ideology is a heresy~~ teaching in the church that abortion is acceptable due to the non-personhood of the fetus is a false teaching that rejects a full understanding of the incarnation, which no Christian in good conscience can hold.

Resolution 4-01

To Realign Circuits

Whereas, Synod bylaw 3.1.2 stipulates "(a) An electoral circuit shall consist either of one or two adjacent visitation circuits, as shall be determined by the District Board of Directors on the basis of the following requirements: each pair of delegates shall represent from 7 to 20 member congregations, involving an aggregate confirmed membership ranging from 1,500 to 10,000.

(b) Exceptions to these requirements may be made only by the President of the Synod upon request of a District Board of Directors"; and

Whereas, Synod bylaw 5.1.2 states "Districts shall establish visitation circuits according to geographical criteria"; and

Whereas, the Missouri District has requested exceptions to these requirements in previous Convention cycles due to circuits with less than the minimum number of confirmed membership; and

Whereas, the number of visitation circuits with less than the minimum number of confirmed members has increased to three in 2023 and currently stands at four; and

Whereas, the Missouri District Board of Directors charged the President to appoint a task force to address this matter and to attempt to bring all electoral circuits into conformity with the bylaw requirements; and

Whereas, the task force was composed of First Vice President Rev. William Marler, Secretary Rev. Samuel Powell, Special Assistant to the President Rev. Terry Weinhold, Executive Director of Congregational Services Rev. Peter Kirby, and President Rev. Dr. R. Lee Hagan; and

Whereas, the task force consulted with circuit visitors, pastors, congregations, and circuit Winkels in developing their recommendations; and

Whereas, the recommendations were presented to the January 2025 Missouri District Board of Directors for discussion; therefore be it

Resolved, that the 2025 Missouri District Convention make changes to the following circuits to bring them into conformity with the Synod bylaws:

- Circuit 4, Carrollton:
 - Add Faith – Kirksville
 - Add Peace – Milan
- Circuit 5, Columbia:
 - Subtract St. John – Mexico
- Circuit 10, Jefferson City:
 - Add Peace – Camdenton
- Circuit 14, Northeast Missouri:
 - Add Grace – Wellsville
 - Add Trinity – Wellsville (Middletown)
 - Add St. John – Mexico
 - Subtract Faith – Kirksville
 - Subtract Peace – Milan
- Circuit 15, Rolla:
 - Add Immanuel – West Plains
 - Add Trinity – Lebanon
- Circuit 20, St. Louis Kirkwood:
 - Add Holy Cross Deaf – St. Louis
- Circuit 21, St. Louis North:
 - Subtract Holy Cross Deaf – St. Louis
- Circuit 24, Sedalia:
 - Subtract Peace – Camdenton
- Circuit 26, Springfield:
 - Subtract Immanuel – West Plains
 - Subtract Trinity – Lebanon
- Circuit 28, Wentzville
 - Subtract Grace – Wellsville
 - Subtract Trinity – Wellsville (Middletown)

And be it finally

Resolved, that Circuits 21, St. Louis North, and 22, St. Louis Overland, remain as separate visitation circuits, but combine as one electoral circuit.

Resolution 4-02

To Revise bylaws Article III.D and Article IV.A

Whereas, the Missouri District Board of Directors identified the need for bylaw revision in its work on revising the Board of Directors Policy Manual; and

Whereas, these proposed changes focus primarily on the duties of the Board of Directors and the President and strive to provide greater clarity for each; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District Convention make the following bylaw changes (additions in red and omissions with strikethrough):

Article III – THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

D. DUTIES

Except as otherwise expressly provided in these bylaws, the Board of Directors shall hold responsibility for the District between Conventions. To this end it shall:

1. At least annually review with the President the District's strategic plan; ~~and when necessary revise the vision, mission, and strategies it has formulated in order to establish short, mid and long term goals through the President;~~
2. Receive and act on the recommendations of the President, council, and committees assigned by the Board of Directors;
3. Coordinate the District's work with Synod's; 4.5.1 (c)
4. Submit proposed annual support goals to the congregations;
5. Establish an annual budget of the District on the basis of the share of the Lord's work assumed by the congregations;
6. Balance the budget as nearly as possible and be authorized to do any and all such things as may be necessary or expedient to accomplish this end;
7. Work with the President and appropriate staff to establish District policies to acquire ~~Acquire~~, hold, lease, mortgage, pledge, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of property (real or personal, tangible or intangible) ~~in~~ on behalf of the Missouri District. The Board will have final-approval authority for the purchase or sale of all real property.
8. ~~Provide for adequate support personnel as well as policies and procedures for the operation of the District office;—~~
9. ~~Determine and define the number, role, function, and responsibility of staff members;—~~
8. Report to the Convention of the District;
9. Approve the site of the District Convention upon recommendation of the ~~District~~ President;
10. ~~Engage a CPA firm to audit the financial records of the District at least annually or at any time during the year as it deems advisable;—~~ Provide for an annual audit of the District's financial records;

11. Engage legal counsel to advise the District regarding legal matters;
12. ~~Provide for the bonding of all officers handling District funds;~~ Conduct an annual review with the President and appropriate staff to ensure that the District has appropriate insurance coverage;
13. Appoint an archivist;
14. ~~Conduct,~~ Supervise and ~~manage~~ oversee all affairs of the District not otherwise assigned.

Article IV - DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND STAFF

A. DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT

The President shall:

1. Exercise ecclesiastical supervision over the doctrine, practice, life, and administration of all elected, called, and appointed officers and the Ministers of Religion – Ordained, Ministers of Religion – Commissioned, and certified church workers, lay, of the District;
2. Perform the duties set forth in Synod bylaw 4.4 and Synod Constitution Article XII and especially serve as chief executive of the District who leads the Board of Directors in the formulation of the District's vision, mission and strategies and in their implementation;
3. Be a member of the Board of Directors;
4. Convene the circuit visitors at least annually;
5. Be a non-voting ex-officio member of all committees including those for professional conferences except the Committee on Nominations;
6. Designate one of the Vice Presidents as his representative to any commission or committee he may deem advisable;
7. Make such appointments as are directed by the District through its bylaws or resolutions;
8. Appoint all necessary committees and an assistant Secretary for the Convention;
9. Be responsible that the resolutions of the Synod, and District and Board of Directors are implemented and coordinated;
10. Make sure that the District personnel, staff, boards, task forces, and committees are working together in harmony to implement the mission, vision and strategies adopted by the Convention and the Board of Directors;
11. Be responsible for an up-to-date procedures manual necessary for the effective and efficient operation of the District; ~~adequately indexed for recording procedures necessary for the effective and efficient operation of the Convention and also for officers, board, council, committees, and District personnel;~~
12. Be responsible for procedures necessary for the effective and efficient operation of the Convention;
13. Have responsibility for supervising the staff according to their respective assignment of duties. He may appoint members of the staff to assist him;
14. Ensure that the needs of District congregations (especially those enumerated in Article V.D) are addressed.

Resolution 4-03

To Revise Bylaws per CCM Recommendations

Whereas, the Board of Directors has been working with the LCMS Commission on Constitutional Matters in the approval process for an updated Board of Directors Policy Manual; and

Whereas, the Commission on Constitutional Matters offered informal recommendations regarding the District bylaws; and

Whereas, discussions between Board and Commission members have indicated that many of the recommendations would provide greater clarity in the bylaws; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District bylaws be amended as follows (additions in red and omissions with strikethrough):

Article II - ADMINISTRATION

A. BASIC PRINCIPLES OF DISTRICT ADMINISTRATION

1. The President is the chief executive of the District. Upon his request, or as may be provided by the bylaws of the District, he shall be assisted by the Vice Presidents and the circuit visitors in supervising the doctrine, practice and life of the Ministers of Religion – Ordained, Ministers of Religion – Commissioned, and congregations of the District.
2. The President shall supervise the work program of the District.
3. The staff and the Council on Mission and Ministry shall be directly responsible to the President and shall report plans and major decisions for approval with power of appeal to the Convention.
4. The Council on Mission and Ministry and all committees shall make reports to each District Convention.
5. All officers, the Board of Directors, the Council on Mission and Ministry, and committees shall be ultimately responsible to the District Convention.
6. The District shall maintain and monitor a conflict of interest policy consistent with Synod bylaw 1.5.2. ~~The District shall maintain and monitor a conflict of interest policy. The Synod bylaw 1.5.2 shall be the bylaw of the District.~~

At alternating District Conventions laypersons shall be elected at large to six-year terms, with ~~two~~ two (2) being elected at one Convention and ~~one~~ one (1) being elected at the following Convention.

5. Each District Convention shall elect to a six-year term on the Council on Mission and Ministry one (1) Minister of Religion — Ordained, one (1) Minister of Religion — Commissioned, and one (1) layperson.

Article VIII - ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT PROCEDURES

B. COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

1. A Committee on Nominations consisting of four Ministers of Religion – Ordained, two Ministers of Religion – Commissioned, and four laypersons, representing all areas of the District is to be elected as a standing committee at each Convention.
2. The members of the Committee on Nominations shall serve one term of three years and are eligible to serve again after at least three years have elapsed. A list of candidates for membership on this committee shall be submitted to the Convention by the outgoing Committee on Nominations.
3. The President shall convene and orientate the Nominating Committee at least eighteen (18) months prior to the Convention. The President shall appoint the Chairman from among the elected members of the Nominating Committee.
4. Duties of Committee on Nominations:
 - a. The Committee on Nominations shall circularize the Ministers of Religion – Ordained and congregations of the District for names and qualifications of Ministers of Religion – Ordained, Ministers of Religion – Commissioned, and laypersons to serve as Secretary, members of the Board of Directors, or members of the Council on Mission and Ministry.
 1. Ministers of Religion – Ordained to serve as District Secretary, members of the Council on Mission and Ministry, and at-large member of the Board of Directors.
 2. Ministers of Religion – Commissioned to serve as at-large members of the Board of Directors and members of the Council on Mission and Ministry.
 3. Laypersons to serve as members of the Board of Directors and the Council on Mission and Ministry.
 - b. The committee itself shall, when sufficient recommendations are not submitted by the announced deadline, place eligible candidates on the ballot.
 - c. In presenting a slate to the Convention, the committee shall supply a brief biographical sketch of each candidate appearing on the ballot. All names shall be listed alphabetically on the official ballot.
 - d. The committee shall endeavor to represent all the areas of the District in nominating at least two candidates for each elected office for which the committee is responsible for providing nominations ~~or position with the exception of the President, the vice Presidents, and the Circuit Visitors.~~ The committee shall further endeavor to represent the needed skill sets for the Board of Directors (legal, finance, investment, administration) and the Council on Mission and Ministry. The Convention reserves the right to place additional names on the ballot. No candidate shall be nominated by the nominating committee for more than one position with the exception of membership on the Committee on Nominations.
 - e. Nominations for the District representative and alternate for the Synod's Committee for Convention Nomination shall be according to Synod bylaw 3.12.3 ff.

Article VIII - ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT PROCEDURES

C. COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS

1. A Committee on Elections consisting of four Ministers of Religion – Ordained, two Ministers of Religion – Commissioned, and four laypersons shall be appointed by the President.
2. Duties of the Committee on Elections:
 - a. The Committee on Elections shall conduct and supervise all elections of the District according to the elections manual of the Missouri District. The committee shall be authorized to interrupt any Convention business ~~business transactions~~ for the purpose of conducting the election.
 - b. The election shall proceed according to the following order: President, First Vice President, other Vice Presidents, Secretary, Board of Directors, Council on Mission and Ministry, the ratification of circuit visitors, and the committee on nominations.
 - c. Primary and election ballots shall be collected during the sessions in which they were distributed.
 - d. A majority of all votes cast shall be required for election to all elected offices and elected board positions.
 - e. The election of the President and First Vice President shall follow the procedure of District bylaw II.D.3.
 - f. Elections other than that of President and Vice President shall follow the procedure of Synod bylaw 4.7.3.
 - g. The elections for the second, third, and fourth Vice Presidents shall proceed as follows.
 1. Nominations shall be by direct nominating ballot of eligible pastors from the District. Each voting delegate shall be entitled to place in nomination as many persons as there are Vice Presidents to be elected. The persons receiving the greatest number of nominations shall be the candidates in the election for Vice Presidents, the number of candidates to be three times the number of offices to be filled.
 2. The rank of Vice Presidents shall be determined by the order of their election or, if more than one is elected in the same voting, by the number of votes received by each.
 3. ~~In the election, each voting delegate shall be entitled to vote for as many candidates as there are offices to be filled. A candidate whose total vote equals or exceeds a majority of the number of delegates voting shall be declared elected.~~
 4. ~~If more candidates receive a majority than there are offices to be filled, those receiving the greatest number of votes shall be declared elected.~~
 5. ~~When a second or succeeding ballot is required for a majority, the candidates receiving the fewest votes shall be dropped from the ballot, leaving two candidates for each position to be filled.~~
 6. ~~This procedure shall be followed until all the offices have been filled.~~
 - g. ~~Elections other than that of President and Vice Presidents shall follow the procedure of Synod bylaw 4.7.3.—~~

Article VIII - ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT PROCEDURES

D. VACANCIES

1. If the Office of President becomes vacant, the First Vice President shall serve as President until the next Presidential election. The new President may serve part-time, with the consent of the Board of Directors, until the next election.
2. If the President becomes incapacitated, his work shall be assumed temporarily by the First Vice President. The decision as to when the President has become incapacitated and when he is no longer incapacitated shall be made by the Board of Directors.
3. A vacancy in any vice presidency shall be filled by advancing the lower-ranking Vice Presidents. The resulting vacancy may be filled by an appointment ~~election~~ of the Board of Directors. A slate of nominees shall be made by the Praesidium from candidates for the vice presidency at the previous Convention.
4. If the Office of Circuit Visitor becomes vacant, the Office shall be filled by Presidential appointment.
5. Vacancies on board, council, and committees shall be filled in a manner as prescribed in the District bylaws governing board, council, and committee administration.

Resolution 4-04

To Revise Bylaws Concerning the Convention Nominating Committee

Whereas, the 2018 Missouri District Convention reduced the number of elected positions significantly by eliminating the four service boards with the Council on Mission and Ministry, but no changes were made to the nominating committee; and

Whereas, the 2018 Missouri District Convention also changed the terms of office for the elected members of the Board of Directors and Council on Mission and Ministry from three-year terms to six-year terms, thus further reducing the number of positions being elected at each Convention; and

Whereas, the successive nominating committees have observed that more time is spent securing candidates for the nominating committee than the other positions; therefore be it

Resolved, that the 2025 Missouri District Convention amend bylaws VIII.B. as follows:

Article VIII - ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT PROCEDURES

B. COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

1. A Committee on Nominations consisting of two ~~four~~ Ministers of Religion – Ordained, two Ministers of Religion – Commissioned, and two ~~four~~ laypersons, endeavoring to be representative of ~~representing~~ all areas of the District is to be elected as a standing committee at each Convention.

Resolution 4-05

To Revise Bylaws Concerning Conference Committees

Whereas, the Handbook of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod requires that ordained and commissioned ministers meet annually for official conferences; and

Whereas, changes were made to the bylaws in 2018 to reflect that the District has not held educators conferences during the same year as Lutheran Education Association National Convocation and to recognize that as a designated conference by the Missouri District; and

Whereas, the current Missouri District bylaws contain language that is unnecessary; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the bylaws of the Missouri District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod be amended with the following additions and removals from Article IX:

A. PURPOSE

The Missouri District shall conduct Official Conferences for Ministers of Religion – Ordained and Ministers of Religion – Commissioned in compliance with 4.8.1 of the Synod bylaws.

B. RECOGNITION OF OFFICIAL CONFERENCES

1. The Official Missouri District Conferences for Ministers of Religion – Ordained shall be ~~in cycles A and C of the triennium~~ the Missouri District Pastors Conference. ~~In cycle B, the Official Conference shall be the~~ or the Missouri District Professional Church Workers Conference.
2. The Official Missouri District Conferences for Ministers of Religion – Commissioned shall be ~~in cycle A the Lutheran Education Association National Convocation. In cycle B, the Missouri District Professional Church Workers Conference, will serve as the Official Conference. In cycle C, and the Missouri District Educators Conference, or the Lutheran Education Association National Convocation. will serve as the Official Conference.~~

C. COMPOSITION OF OFFICIAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

1. ~~The Praesidium and three pastors, selected by the pastors' conference in cycle C, will serve as the planning committee, including the program and selection of speakers, for all District pastors' conferences.~~ Three pastors will be selected by the Missouri District Pastors Conference following the District Convention to serve as members of the conference committee, along with the Praesidium.
2. The Ministers of Religion – Commissioned Educators' Conference Committee (Educators' Conference) shall consist of the President, Director of Schools ~~assistant to the President—education~~, and representative educators from across the Missouri District (including high schools, elementary schools, and early childhood programs) to be appointed by the President.
3. The Professional Church Workers' Conference Committee shall consist of the President and an assistant to the President. The President shall also appoint two Vice Presidents, three of the Ministers of Religion – Ordained selected by the Pastors Conference ~~pastors' conference~~, four representative educators from across the Missouri District (including high schools, elementary schools and early childhood programs), and one Minister of Religion – Commissioned who is not serving primarily in an educational setting.

Resolution 4-06

To Review and Clarify Prior Approval

Whereas, one of the expressed purposes of Synod is to “recruit and train pastors, teachers, and other professional church workers and provide opportunity for their continuing growth” (Article III.3); and

Whereas, Synod has the responsibility to oversee that training, and has done so in various forms throughout its history; and

Whereas, Synod has delegated a portion of that responsibility to the prior approval panels outlined in various bylaws (3.6.6.1, 3.10.5.7.3, 3.10.6.8.2, 3.10.6.9.2); and

Whereas, the restructuring of Synod by the 2010 Convention eliminated existing agencies tasked with prior approval for seminary faculty members (namely, the Board for Pastoral Education); and

Whereas, Synod in convention passed 2013 Res. 5-11B, which amended current bylaw 3.10.5.7.3 by establishing a three-person prior approval panel for the appointment of full-time seminary faculty members, to be comprised of three ordained members, including “the President of Synod (or his designee), the Chairman of the Council of Presidents (or his designee), and the Chairman of the Board for National Mission (or his designee)”; and

Whereas, Synod in convention subsequently passed 2016 Res. 7-06B, which added current bylaw 3.10.6.9 to establish a three-person prior approval panel for the appointment of those teaching theology classes at a Concordia University System institution, to be comprised of three ordained members, including “the President of Synod (or his designee), the Chairman of the Council of Presidents (or his designee), and a member of the Concordia University System board selected by the chair”; and

Whereas, those panels have responsibility not only to work on behalf of the Synod but also are responsible to the Synod; and

Whereas, some questions have arisen in recent years regarding the transparency of the process, the standards by which approval is determined, and the exact composition, and appropriateness, of the panels themselves; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District (hereafter, District) in convention give thanks to the Lord of the Church for using the Synod and its agencies to preserve and enlarge the workers of the harvest (Matthew 9:35–38); and be it further

Resolved, that the District in convention give thanks to those engaged in the various prior approval processes for being engaged in difficult and important work; and be it further

Resolved, that the District in convention memorialize the Synod to reexamine the composition and processes of prior approval panels, especially those involved in the appointment of full-time seminary faculty members and those teaching theology classes at a Concordia University System institution; and be it further

Resolved, that the District in convention memorialize the Synod to expand the composition of those two panels to include a total of five voters each, possibly drawing from other boards, commissions, and entities of Synod charged with oversight or guidance of doctrine and practice (including, for example, representatives from Commission on Doctrinal Review or Commission on Theology and Church Relations); and be it further

Resolved, that the District in convention memorialize the Synod to establish bylaws that might guide the members of the prior approval panel in assessing candidates and providing rationale for the decisions they make to the candidates themselves and to their calling institutions, taking into account all due privacy concerns and laws; and be it finally

Resolved, that the District in convention memorialize the Synod in convention to propose amended bylaws no later than the 2029 Synod Convention.

Resolution 4-07

To Increase the Missouri District Church Worker Scholarship Endowment Fund

Whereas, the Resolution 4-03 of the 2022 Missouri District Convention directed “the President and Board of Directors to study the feasibility of a capital campaign to address ministry needs within the District, not limited to but including, increasing the Missouri District Church Worker Scholarship Endowment Fund so that greater support can be provided to the Missouri District students in church worker programs”; and

Whereas, the President and Board of Directors studied the feasibility of a capital campaign with an external consultant; and

Whereas, the President and Board of Directors agreed to continue efforts to increase the Church Worker Scholarship Endowment Fund without the expenses associated with a formal capital campaign; and

Whereas, the Missouri District Church Worker endowment fund has increased by $104,179 since the 2022 Missouri District Convention; and

Whereas, the need of financial support for church work students continues to increase; and

Whereas, church worker recruitment and retention continues to be a great need for congregations and schools of the District; therefore be it

Resolved, that the congregations and schools of the District be commended for the promotion of the annual Tomorrow’s Teachers & Preachers emphasis to increase the Missouri District Church Worker Scholarship Endowment Fund; and be it further

Resolved, that the Convention establish a goal of increasing the Missouri District Church Worker Scholarship Endowment Fund by at least 10% by June 30, 2028; and be it further

Resolved, that congregations and schools of the District be encouraged to participate in the annual Tomorrow’s Teachers & Preachers emphasis to receive door offerings and other gifts for the endowment fund; and be it further

Resolved, that congregations of the District be encouraged to assist the District in promoting non-cash gifts such as commodity, investment, and estate gifts among their members; and be it further

Resolved, that updates on the progress of reaching this goal be provided through the Missouri District Annual Report; and be it finally

Resolved, that the Convention chaplain lead the Convention in prayer, giving thanks to God for the generosity of the saints who have supported the Missouri District Church Worker Endowment Fund and that God would move the hearts of many to provide gifts for the support of the preparation of church workers for generations to come.

Resolution 4-08

To Affirm That Pastoral Formation in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod is Done By Synodically Approved Seminaries

Amended by Convention

Whereas, the Office of the Holy Ministry has been instituted by Christ Himself (John 20:19-23, Eph. 4:11-16), and

Whereas, the third Objective of the LCMS Constitution (Article III) is to “Recruit and train pastors, teachers, and other professional church workers and provide opportunity for their continuing growth,” and

Whereas, a central purpose in the formation of the LCMS, 178 years ago, was to share together in the task of preparing and recognizing LCMS pastors, whom LCMS congregations would then be free to choose and call for service. Thus, the LCMS has, from its beginning, supported and operated its own seminaries: Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, Missouri, and Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and

Whereas, in May 2025, the president of Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and the president of Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, Missouri, wrote letters to the LCMS responding to questions about non-LCMS online theological programs appealing to LCMS students and donors, and

Whereas, the presidents of Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, and Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, clearly stated in their letters that graduates of ~~neither of these~~ non-approved programs may be ordained or installed in an LCMS congregation or ministry. Further, ~~neither of these~~ non-approved programs ~~is~~ are not owned, operated, or governed by the LCMS, and

Whereas, these two presidents (of Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, and Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne) are two of the three members of the Pastoral Formation Committee. This Committee’s primary role is “... ensuring that the Synod’s objective of training pastors is fulfilled consistently (Bylaw 3. National Organization and Responsibilities, 3.10, Other Councils, Committees, and Boards, D. Pastoral Formation Committee and Constitution Article III, 3),” and

Whereas, the 2023 Synodical Convention, in Resolution 6-02A, resolved that “districts and members of the Synod honor, use, and promote Synod-approved programs and not create independent programs of pastoral preparation or direct men to a pastoral preparation program outside of our Synod’s seminaries,” therefore be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod in convention acknowledge and affirm LCMS Bylaw 2.5.2 regarding calls and proper service, which states:

“Congregations that are members of the Synod and their association schools shall call and be served only by (1) ordained ministers who have been admitted to their respective ministries in accordance with the rules and regulations set forth in these Bylaws and have thereby become members of the Synod; (2) candidates for the pastoral ministry who have satisfied the qualifications and requirements for assignment of first calls by the Council of Presidents acting as the Board of Assignments; or (3) ordained ministers who are members in good standing of church bodies that have been formally recognized to be in altar and pulpit fellowship with the Synod when agreements for such calls are in place”

and be it further resolved

Resolved, that any congregation that should call or be served by a man not certified to serve as a pastor in the LCMS be addressed by the appropriate Synodical disciplinary process as described in Bylaw 2.5.4, which states:

“Congregations that violate these requirements and persist in such violation shall, after due admonition, forfeit their membership in the Synod.” and be it

Resolved, that the Missouri District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod also acknowledge and affirm Synod Bylaws 2.6.2. and 2.6.3, regarding qualifications for and right to Synod membership, which state:

Bylaw 2.6.2

“Individuals who have been declared qualified for a first call and assigned first calls in accordance with Bylaw sections 2.7–2.9 shall, by the rites of both ordination or commissioning and installation in accordance with Bylaw section 2.10, become members of the Synod,

Bylaw 2.6.3,

“There is no inherent right to membership in the Synod, and the decision as to qualification for a first call and the assignment of first calls shall be at the sole discretion of the Synod” and be it

~~And be it finally~~ Resolved, that the Missouri District in convention give thanks to God for the work of our seminaries and the Gospel they proclaim, and be it finally

Resolved, that the Missouri District send this resolution as a memorial to the 2026 Synod Convention.

Report of the President to the 2025 Missouri District Convention

The 2022-2025 triennium has provided great opportunities for the congregations and schools of the Missouri District, in the midst of significant challenges. Congregations saw worship attendance figures increase in the early part of the triennium, but most congregations did not reach pre-pandemic numbers. Retirements and acceptance of calls were more limited during 2020-21. However, there have been significant transitions of church workers during the last three years. At the same time, the Missouri District SHINE! servant event has involved more than 10,000 participants the last two years. There also have been a number of new initiatives by congregations across the District as studies have begun for new high schools and the launch of a new elementary school. The MOScholars tax credit program has enabled the Missouri District to provide more than $2.3 million in scholarships in the last three years. Missouri District Lutheran schools saw many new families enroll students during the pandemic, and most have been retained. As St. Paul invites the Colossians to pray for open doors for the Word to proclaim Christ (Colo. 4:2-5), we also pray that our congregations, schools, and individual Christians would make the most out of every opportunity by clearly proclaiming the Gospel.

Critical Targets for 2022-2025

The Missouri District Board of Directors adopted the following critical targets for the staff and leadership for what was expected to be a triennium:

1. Church Worker Recruitment and Retention – Church worker recruitment and retention has been our top priority this triennium. The District hosted two college fairs with participation from all Concordia University System universities and both seminaries. LCMS Set Apart to Serve also participated in both fairs to highlight church work vocations. Additionally, the annual Tomorrow's Teachers & Preachers emphasis has led to an increase to the Church Worker Scholarship endowment fund by $104,179 since the triennium began. Church work vocations have been promoted through the District's YouthLead event in 2023 and at the annual District Youth Gatherings. The District also was able to celebrate the ordination of Nepalese pastors Nabin Samal and Ratna Mangar and Eritrean pastor Lewi Jermiya. Through a partnership with Lutheran Church Extension Fund and MinistryFOCUS, an LCMS Recognized Service Organization, the District was able to provide funds to assist District church workers struggling with educational debt.
2. Family Discipleship Expansion – The Missouri District has partnered with Concordia Center for the Family to provide Tell the Next Generation facilitators across the District to assist congregations in equipping parents for passing on the faith within the home. Additional training is scheduled for April 2025 in St. Louis. Family discipleship has been a frequent topic presented at E2 conferences, professional conferences, and the Tell the Next Generation conference, one of which is tentatively scheduled for Fall 2025. The Missouri District worked with Heit's Point Lutheran Ministries to host a Family Camp in June 2024 for families. Dr. Mart and Cheryl Thompson were the leaders for the camp and focused on helping parents in their God-given role in teaching the faith to their children. A second Family Camp is scheduled at Heit's Point for June 9-13, 2025. Several circuits and congregations are also working to provide local conferences focused on marriage and family support.

3. Community Engagement – This triennium saw the chartering of three new congregations in Platte Woods, University City, and Ozark. Of particular note is that the congregation in Platte Woods is made up of people of the Oromo tribe in Ethiopia and Eritrea. Church planting continues to be a strong emphasis with early planting (and re-planting) efforts in St. Louis among different ethnic groups (including Amharic, Kunama, and Spanish language), in Kansas City, and in St. Charles County. The District is developing a pilot project for two congregations and a dual parish to help them move beyond outreach events to consistently reaching out to the mission field that is their community. Tools and resources for community engagement have also been shared at E2 conferences and Pastors conferences.
4. Shared Ministry – Shared Ministry workshops have been held across the District and within every circuit, at circuit visitor training, E2 conferences, and Pastors conferences. Shared Ministry was presented at several 2024 Circuit Convocations. One exciting example of Shared Ministry is the Rolla Circuit congregations partnering together to hire a staff person to work in the area of family discipleship. New shared ministries have been established between Good Shepherd in Centralia and Campus in Columbia, along with Zion in Bolivar and Our Savior in Buffalo. Shared ministry has been one of the primary areas of conversation in circuit visitor training, which has increased from once a year to twice a year, beginning in 2023. Tools to assist circuit visitors and congregation leaders in developing shared ministry have been developed, including sample agreements and steps toward establishing a shared ministry.

Challenges Facing Our Congregations

The cultural pressures facing our young people and families are constant. Our young people are faced with ideologies that are at odds with God’s design for humanity and families. An agenda that seeks to destroy the role of the Church and parents in the lives of the children has permeated social media, the entertainment industry, and higher education at many public and private universities. Likewise, sports have lured a generation of families away from the Church each weekend. While the Synod, with the support of the Commission on Theology and Church Relations, the seminaries, and Recognized Service Organizations such as DOXOLOGY, has helped to address matters of sexual orientation and gender identity from the truth of God’s Word, there is a growing need for faithful Christian therapists, whose counsel is faithful to the Scriptures, especially regarding God’s creation of male and female and His design for marriage. Faithful parents are joined in a search with their pastors for Christian counselors whose practice is built on the foundation of the Bible, not undermining it. My office sent a pastoral letter in October 2024 to address Missouri Amendment 3 and the effort to codify the right to abortion with little or no restrictions in the Missouri Constitution. A bulletin insert was also provided, as well as links to further explain the proposed ballot initiative. Sadly, Amendment 3 was adopted. Christian families who deal with infertility are also seeking faithful guidance regarding “reproductive technologies.” Once again, we see the influence of the culture and its attacks on life and families. Many Christians are now seeking guidance on how faithful Christians and our congregations can respond.

Bold Hope in Christ for the Church Today

These are challenging times for the Christian Church and for faithful Lutheran congregations. Worship attendance has continued to decline. The call process has become more difficult with the decline in enrollment at the seminaries and the growing number of retirees. Many congregational leaders are discouraged when they look at the issues facing their individual congregations.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, our hope is in Christ, not a pastor who we need to walk through the door with an “S” on his chest and a cape flowing in the wind. Your pastor has not been sent by God to be the savior; that job is already taken. Your hope is not in plans and programs, but in the risen Christ, who rules over His Church just as much today as He did during your congregation’s so-called glory days. While there are great challenges facing the Church, our hope is in the One who came down to earth, to suffer, die, and rise again. He is the source of our hope.

Since we have such a hope, we are very bold. We can be bold because we know that Jesus is our Immanuel, God with us. He dwells with us through times of suffering and affliction, as well as times of joy and celebration. We need not fear or despair because He has promised to be with us always. We do not need to fear the world because the One who is in us is greater than the one who is in the world.

We also are filled with hope because we know that God’s Word will not return to Him empty. Every congregation of the District has exactly what you need because you have the Word of God. From early childhood centers to Lutheran high schools, from congregations to a seminary, and in the home of every member family, God is at work through His Word as it is preached, prayed, taught, sung, and lived.

Our hope is also in the work of the Holy Spirit through the means of grace. It is not up to us to bring anyone to faith in Jesus. At the same time, since we know that the Holy Spirit is at work through the Word, we can boldly proclaim the truth of the Gospel in our congregations, schools, homes, and communities, trusting that the Holy Spirit will create faith where and when it pleases Him.

Open Doors for the Gospel

The Mission Report will highlight all of the various mission activities of the Missouri District during this triennium. In particular, there are two areas of District missions that I wish to note because they involve care and outreach to the critical age of young adults, many of whom are absent in our congregations: campus ministry and military outreach.

Campus ministry is such an important way that our congregations can partner together to support young people who are studying at universities and colleges in Missouri. The Missouri District Campus Ministry Network provides a website where parents and students can notify the Lutheran campus ministry point person of a student attending college near one of our sixteen campus ministries. Additionally, Campus Lutheran Church in Columbia, in partnership with the Missouri District, provides an annual campus ministry leadership conference for student and adult leaders from across the District (and beyond). It is so important for the Church to provide care and support for the young people as they face all of the negative influences that can be found on college campuses.

The Missouri District has two congregations that are intentionally caring for Lutherans at Fort Leonard Wood and Whiteman Air Force Base, but also reaching many who have no connection with any church. Faith Lutheran Churches in St. Robert and Knob Noster are the “tip of the spear” in our mission and ministry among military personnel. These ministries include caring for the military families in their congregations, but also getting “on base” to build relationships and share the hope of the Gospel.

Another open door for the Gospel is outreach to the growing ethnic diversity in Missouri. However, reaching out to people of different ethnicities is nothing new for us in this District. This year marks the 150th anniversary of the Western District (the forerunner of the Missouri District) beginning outreach to Chinese immigrants in St. Louis. Today, the Gospel is being proclaimed in Missouri District congregations and missions in more than a dozen different languages.

As noted above, Lutheran elementary schools, high schools and early childhood centers provide open doors for the Gospel as thousands of children are taught the Christian faith and prepared for lives of service to the Church and world. While there are challenges facing our schools in terms of finances and finding faithful teachers, there are great opportunities for kingdom growth through our existing and future Lutheran schools.

There are also open doors for the Gospel through congregations and Recognized Service Organizations that seek to support the sanctity of life and care for expectant mothers and their children. Trinity Lutheran Church in Clinton provides Zoe's Home, a pregnancy and parenting home. Several Missouri District congregations have partnered with Swaddling Clothes, a Missouri-based Recognized Service Organization, that assists congregations in caring for expectant and new mothers and children in their communities. Showing Christ's mercy and care for mothers and their children are tangible ways that our congregations can demonstrate our commitment to the sanctity of life.

Transitions

The Missouri District executive staff had two significant additions since the last convention. Joshua Swartz began serving as the Director of Schools on July 1, 2022. His leadership and support of Lutheran schools and the introduction of MOScholars has been particularly important. Peter Kirby joined the staff as the Executive Director of Congregational Services in January 2023, overseeing support for congregations and the survey process of calling congregations. The Missouri District is blessed with the leadership of veteran staff members who are dedicated to the support of the congregations, schools, and church workers they are called to serve.

Go Forward with Bold Hope in Christ

While the challenges facing our congregations are great, we are not deterred from the work that the Lord has given to us. My prayer for the Missouri District congregations, schools, church workers, and laypeople is that we would truly be bold in our confession on account of the hope that we have in Christ. Now is not the time for weak resignation, but boldness and confidence. In closing, I encourage you all with the words of St. Paul to the church at Rome, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope," (Rom. 15:13, ESV).

Respectfully submitted by,

President Rev. Dr. R. Lee Hagan

Acceptance Speech of the President at the 2025 Missouri District Convention

In the afternoon of June 25, 1530, Chancellor of Saxony Christian Beyer stood before Emperor Charles V and read the German version of the Augsburg Confession. Dr. Beyer's loud voice carried so that the crowd gathered outside the hall in the courtyard were able to hear its presentation, which lasted approximately two hours. Seven German princes and two city councils had subscribed to the confession. At the risk of their lives and their earthly kingdoms, they boldly confessed their hope in Christ. Beyer read these words from Article IV of the Augsburg Confession, "We receive forgiveness of sin and become righteous before God out of grace for Christ's sake when we believe that Christ has suffered for us and that for his sake our sin is forgiven and righteousness and eternal life are given to us." This was their bold confession, and it remains what we believe, teach and confess still today!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, there is much fear and apathy among our congregations today. Church leaders may wonder if the best days are behind us. We look back upon the past with longing and look to the future with uncertainty. And at times, we are hesitant even in the present because of the feeling that we're too small or too old or we've tried it all before. But Jesus Christ has indeed risen from the dead. The living Christ gives hope to those who were paralyzed by fears and doubts. Christ is not in the tomb! He sits at the Father's right hand in glory. Last night we sang, "This is the feast of victory for our God," because Christ has conquered sin and death! This is the hope that we proclaim. This is what we believe, teach and confess. This is the hope of which we sing. Because Christ has risen we have such hope and because we have such hope, we are very bold! My prayer for our congregations is that the next three years would be marked by boldness in proclaiming the Risen Christ, that we have boldness to proclaim the Gospel. It may be proclaimed in different places and amongst different people, but it is the same Gospel of Christ's victory and the hope that it brings.

In Springfield and Washington circuits, the boldness of our congregations means starting new Lutheran high schools. That's bold. In some congregations, boldness means reaching out through ministries that support expectant mothers and children in need. In other congregations, they are boldly serving the underserved in their community by providing clothing, food and even shelter. You've certainly seen such things after the recent tornado in St. Louis. Their boldness may take on different forms, but it always provides opportunities to boldly confess Jesus Christ! That's why we are here, and it's why we serve.

The four critical targets that the District just adopted, that our District Board of Directors have wrestled with focus on key things for our future:

1. Church Worker Recruitment and Retention. We want to continue this emphasis, because of the great need for bold servants in our congregations and schools.
2. Discipleship in the Home. Our goal is to continue to assist congregations in equipping the homes to be places where Christ is at the center of the home and the Gospel is boldly taught there.
3. Mission Field: Missouri. This is the recognition that we have a mission field of over three million souls who are unchurched right here in our own midst. As our mission statement says, "The Missouri District exists to serve and encourage congregations to fulfill the Great Commission and promote the unity of the true faith."
4. Leadership Development. The District will provide training to assist congregations in developing leaders for our congregations and schools, amongst rostered church workers and laypeople.

The common goal thread among the four targets is bold hope in Christ!

The resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead changes everything and gives our lives hope and purpose. Pastors all have their favorite theologians that they like to read. The last few years I've really gone back again and again to Swedish Lutheran Bishop, Bo Giertz. His writings are just as timely today as they were when he became Bishop in Sweden nearly seventy years ago. A newly translated work was called A Shepherd's Letter. It's encouragement for the church to be bold, to be bold as we hope in Christ. In it Bishop Giertz writes, "The church's whole existence depends on a miracle: that he who was dead has risen again and is now with them all their days. The church itself is a participation in this miracle. She would not exist if Christ's resurrection power was not at work in her ... Everything that the Resurrected One does and works, all that he draws into his sphere of life, all that he justifies and sanctifies, all that he uses in some way as a means of grace, it is permeated by the hidden power of the resurrection" (p. 9-10). "Everything depends on this: that Christ is risen, that God's Son was delivered for our trespasses and raised for our justification' (Rom 4:25)." (p. 17)

Dear friends in Christ, Our Lord has indeed risen from the dead. May this hope make us bold confessors of the faith as we hold to the truth of God's Word. May we be bold witnesses who tell others about the hope that is within us. And may we be bold servants of Christ as we proclaim the Gospel boldly to all whom we serve. The resurrection of Jesus gives hope to every believer and that means that every congregation can be bold on account of the hope that we have in Christ Jesus!

June 24, 2025, in the afternoon, hundreds of God's people will return home from another convention, returning to their callings at home and at work and in the church. These are the places where God has called you to serve Him and to demonstrate the bold hope that we have in Christ. For less than forty-eight hours, we will have gathered here to be reminded of our Savior's resurrection and to know and to live out what that hope means in each and every one of our congregations! My prayer is that our congregations could be described as all having bold hope in Christ. He is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia! May God grant it for Jesus' sake. Amen.

President Rev. Dr. R. Lee Hagan
